"gloomy & cold"

grandeur, and improve the magic effect of this noble effort of his inimitable powers. The form and tone of colouring of the clouds and rainbow are appropriate and correctly harmonize with the greatness of the subject, to the perfection of which the artist has lent the whole of his matchless talents.

Paul Potter 54 A cabinet picture, known as "the RABBIT WARREN;" a pleasing Landscape with animals sporting on a bank, drawn with the wonted accuracy of this inimitable artist, whose fame in Holland ranked him as the FATHER of animal painting. A warm glow of sunshine beams over the picture, which is finished with a sparkling brilliancy and crispness of touch creating to the animals an illusive approach to real objects. Claude Lorraine 57 A GRAND ITALIAN LANDSCAPE, in which the Artist has introduced an Historical Subject from Ovid.

This pleasing and enchanting Scene, distinguished for its repose and sweet serenity of air, has ever been esteemed the happiest selection of Landscape painted by this Artist, and is truly characteristic of the clime of Italy.

The rich foreground to the left is embellished with an Old Castle, and other Architectural features. The receding distances are majestically treated; and the perspective scenery and intersecting River, are lost in the ærial tone for which this master is exclusively famed, and which in this picture he has so happily realised.

On the right of the beautiful Landscape is a group of Nymph and Satyr reposing, and a Shepherd with his Flock

This chef-d'œuvre stamps its authenticity as the perfection of the master, and the acme of his art.

It adorned for many years the gallery of the late MONS. DE CALONNE, Minister of France, at whose Sale in 1795 it was purchased by LORD BERWICK, and from whom MR. ZACHARY bought it.

Size of picture 5 feet 1½ by 3 feet, and with the frame 6 feet 9 by 4 feet 8.

58 THE CELEBRATED WATER-MILL. A rich and beautiful WOODY LANDSCAPE, in which the artist has happily introduced HIS CELEBRATED WATER MILL, situated on the borders of a running stream, whereon is a boat and figures unloading its stores; on the left of the landscape is a group of Cottages on the side of a road which passes thro' the wood; in the fore ground, on the right, a sportsman dressed in red, is shooting at wild fowl, and a herdsman driving cattle (by Berghem) between a clump of trees, judiciously introduced.

This picture has ever ranked a chef d'œuvre of the master, and known by the name of "The Water Mill;"—for beauty of composition, faithful delineation of nature, and elaborate finish, it cannot be surpassed.

The real works of this artist are unusually scarce, and pre-eminently esteemed, particularly when to be found of the rich and high quality of this brilliant specimen, which is in point of preservation, as perfect as at the moment the artist dismissed it from his easel. Formerly in the Collection of Mr. OFFLEY, and latterly, until purchased by Mr. Zachary, in the Gallery of Mr. EYCOOT

Size of picture 4 feet 4 by 3 feet 3, and with the frame 5 feet 10 by 4 feet 8.

1300g, Albert Cuyp 61 A MAGNIFICENT LANDSCAPE.

G. George
Cottman Esq.

On the border of a beautiful LAKE, over which the artist has diffused with exquisite management, all that glow and vapour portending heat, with a clearness and transparency of execution so peculiar to himself, 'are seen a CAVALIER on HORSEBACK, who appears conversing with a Peasant, and pointing to the beauties of the distant scenery.

The fore ground of the Paysage is formed by a rich acclivity, planted with trees and intersected by a road, along which a HERDSMAN is driving a group of CATTLE; painted with his usual freedom and truth of drawing, and vieing in colour with the best works of BOTH.

The superior powers of CUYP in giving EFFECT are highly exemplified by this select specimen of his art; the figures and cattle are happily and unobtrusively placed, and harmonize with the combination of excellencies which mark this matchless specimen of the master, whose works are daily becoming more scarce, from the avidity with which every collector of taste seeks to possess them, and particularly those on the continent

This picture may truly be termed a chef d'œuvre of the master—from MR. CRAWFORD'S Collection.

Size of picture 4 feet 11 by 3 feet 6, and with the frame 6 feet 3 by 4 feet 8.
